You might call it the best day of the year.

Today is National Coffee Day, and these fine mixes (and one fine coffee machine) are a good way to celebrate the wonderful drink that drives all business productivity.

1. Dancing Moon Coffee Jamaica Blue Mountain \(\$26\)

This company, started by three retired friends, sources this coffee blend from a specific estate within Jamaica. It has a hint of citrus and chocolate.

2. Community Coffee Company Pumpkin Praline ($6.49)

Buying this coffee helps kids. You can cut the UPC symbol from the package and schools can turn them in for cash. The company just did a complete rebranding and has a new logo.

3. Brian's 24 House Blend (Varies)

A diner in San Diego that ships anywhere, Brian's 24 makes an organic blend that came about after a partnership with Cafe Virtuoso roaster, also based in San Diego.

4. H.C. Valentine Organic Aztec Roast (Varies)

A dark roast from Latin America and Indonesia, this blend has a hint of cocoa, plum and tobacco. Like Dancing Moon, the blends are single-sourced from specific growers.

5. Jura 95 ($3,398.90)

Make sure you treat your staff to a daily ritual -- coffee that tastes like it was brewed at a coffee house (and even better because it's fresh). This machine grinds on the spot; a display walks you through the steps to make a light or dark roast or even a cappuccino.
